

WPCS Announces $5.6 Million in New Contracts

EXTON, Pa. – (PR Newswire – First Call) – August 28, 2006 WPCS International Incorporated (NASDAQ: WPCS), a leader in design-build engineering services for specialty communication systems and wireless infrastructure, has announced that it has recently been awarded a variety of new contracts totaling $5.6 million. Some of the contracts awarded to WPCS include projects to be completed for Mohegan Sun Casino, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), Hebron School Corporation, Monmouth County Correctional Institution, Connecticut State Police and the Palisades Parkway, Marlboro and Sea Isle City, New Jersey Police Departments.

In addition to these contracts, WPCS, through its Southeastern Communication Service (SECS) subsidiary, was awarded a contract from the County of Sarasota, Florida to design and deploy a wireless network for the increased productivity of mobile county-wide employees. Also, the network will be utilized for public safety and tourism. The first phase of this deployment has been completed and includes the County Administration Building in downtown Sarasota as well as Siesta Key and Lido Beaches.

Tony Ankersmit, Vice President of Technical Operations at SECS, commented, "The County of Sarasota has become a wireless technology innovator in the deployment of solutions that have increased productivity for its workforce and has benefited citizens and tourists alike. We have worked closely with the Sarasota Economic Development Council in outlining their vision to spur economic growth through the deployment of wireless technology. We are pleased to be involved in the implementation process and look forward to servicing and supporting this important county-wide network."
