

WPCS Receives $8 Million in New Contracts

EXTON, PA - (PR Newswire - First Call) - August 11, 2009 WPCS International Incorporated (NASDAQ: WPCS), a leader in design-build engineering services for communications infrastructure, has announced that it has received approximately $8 million in new contracts.

The new contracts include projects to be completed for the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), University of California Berkeley, Las Positas College Child Development Center, Kaiser Permanente, Avaya, Manatee County, USF Sun Dome, Cape May Police Department, Bergen County Police Department, City of Charleston Police Department, Brick-Community First Aid, Wayne Township, Riverside Medical, Center for Urban Waters and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. In addition, WPCS was awarded several contracts in Australia including projects for McDonald's, Fila, Westpac and Rockhampton Medical.

James Heinz, Executive Vice President of WPCS commented, "In the past few months, we have seen an increase in bid activity that has given us the opportunity to generate new backlog for the company. We are optimistic that this new level of bid activity can be sustained over the next several months. There has been a fair amount of repeat business but also, we have added new companies to our customer base. We believe that our reputation for providing high quality engineering services and our depth of expertise in the markets we serve are principle reasons we are attracting new customers."
