

WPCS Announces $12 Million in New Contracts

EXTON, PA - (PR Newswire - August 9, 2010) WPCS International Incorporated (NASDAQ: WPCS), a leader in design-build engineering services for communications infrastructure, has announced that it has received approximately $12 million in new contracts.

The new contracts include projects to be completed for Enfield Police Department, Vernon Police Department, Gardner Police Department, Wallingford Police Department, Bloomfield Fire Department, Northampton Police Department, Holyoke Police Department, Toms River Police Department, Duquesne Light, Neptune Township, Mount Airy Resort & Casino, Nokia, Teaneck Township, Camden City Police Department, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, GTSI Corporation, Clearwire, Carnation Elementary School, Cherry Valley Elementary School, Clipper Windpower, DNV Global Energy Concepts, Infinity Wind Power and Princeton Theological Seminary. Additionally, there were international projects awarded to WPCS from Shenzhen Gas in China and Nambour General Hospital, Gladstone Oral Health Facility, Gympie Hospital and McDonald's Corporation in Australia.

Andrew Hidalgo, CEO of WPCS commented, "We are receiving many new projects from state and local municipalities, which indicates for us an increased level of fiscal stimulus spending. This certainly helps our backlog momentum. In addition, we are seeing a higher level of activity in our healthcare and energy sectors which is very encouraging. The WPCS management team remains optimistic as we continue to announce new contracts."
